Comptroller Names Deputy Banking Head

Tallahassee — Comptroller of Florida Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson, Jr., Monday named Harry J. Ferrell Deputy State Banking Commissioner of Florida.

Ferrell was elevated to the top banking position by Comptroller Dickinson to fill the vacancy created by the death of veteran Deputy State Banking Commissioner John Vasey Chapman.

Mr. Chapman died May 18 at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital following an extended illness.

Comptroller Dickinson, who is the State Banking Commissioner of Florida, commented that "the death of J. V. Chapman is a great personal and public loss. He served Florida, its banking system and its citizens in a measure unequalled by any person in dedication, energy and ability."

Of Ferrell, the Comptroller noted that "Harry Ferrell is particularly well qualified to accept the responsibilities of this most important state position. He has been trained at the side of Mr. Chapman and is skilled in the intricacies of the dual banking system."

Ferrell, 49, and his wife, reside at 1854 Belle Vue Way in Tallahassee. They have two daughters, born in Jacksonville. Ferrell attended schools in Lacoochee and Dade City.

Ferrell served in the Air Force in World War II and now is an Air Force Reserve Lieutenant Colonel.

Ferrell came to the Comptroller's Office in December of 1949 as an auditor. In March of 1949, he was employed by a savings and loan association, and returned to the Comptroller's Office in April 1949. He became assistant Deputy State Banking Commissioner in April, 1953.

Showers Great Aid In Fighting Forest Fires

TALLAHASSEE — Grateful for showers which touched most portions of Florida Monday and Tuesday, hard-pressed forest firefighters are hoping the rain is not over yet.

"We need more rain—lots more—where that came from," said State Forester C. H. Coulter. He went on to say that the emergency fire conditions which existed "are still very much with us." Coulter termed the rains "extremely helpful" in lessening the immediate fire emergency. But he emphasized that no basic precaution against forest wildlife should be relaxed at the present time.

"A shower or so doesn't break a drought," Coulter said, "not when deficits from the first of the year still show less than half the normal rainfall for most sections of Florida."

The weather bureau's extended forecast for Tuesday, May 23 through Saturday, May 27 calls for total rainfall during the 5-day period expected to range from one-half to one inch over all sections of the state.

By noon Monday, virtually all points in north and west Florida had received some precipitation—two inches or more in the extreme western panhandle—but fractions of less than one inch had fallen in counties south of Gainesville.

Born on a low pressure front moving from west to east across Florida, the welcome showers were the first noteworthy rains for most Floridians in 60 or even 90 days.

During the past eight days—the most severe fire buildup period during 1967—some fires had seared 16,202 acres of forest, brush, and woodland. Total protected forest acreage burned in Florida since January reached 122,000 acres. The 5000th fire since January 1 was reported May 21.

Unprotected acreage burned—areas not under protection of the Florida Forest Service—have reached over one million acres. This is over half of the unprotected area.

Kirk Urges Jobs For Youths This Summer

TALLAHASSEE—Urging all citizens to lend a hand to youthful job seekers this summer, Governor Claude R. Kirk, Jr., has proclaimed June Youth Opportunity Month.

"I call upon all citizens to join in providing extra work and job opportunities for these young people," Governor Kirk declared.

State Industrial Commission Chairman Thomas W. Johnston announced that the 44 local State Employment Service offices in Florida are ready to serve employers who want youthful summertime employees.

A number of cities in the state have special YES (Youth Employment Service) offices sponsored by local civic clubs, Johnston said.

In his proclamation, Governor Kirk said business, industry, and government last year provided young people between 16 and 21 with 2,000 jobs above the average of prior years.

The Governor pointed out that 60,000 young Florida men and women will be seeking work at the close of school.

"Summer work experience is needed to provide these young people with training in job discipline, future careers, and earnings to make possible a return to school in the fall," Governor Kirk said.

Welfare Study Proposed By Thomas Bill

A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to make a comprehensive study of the public welfare laws and programs will be introduced tomorrow by State Senator Jerry Thomas, D-Lake Park.

Thomas said he would introduce the study recommendation at the request of Emmett S. Roberts, Director of the State Welfare Department and former representative of Palm Beach County.

The study and recommendations would be submitted to the Legislature 30 days before the next regular session.

"Mr. Roberts felt that the study should be made for the purpose of working toward codification of laws prescribing the administrative and legislative responsibilities of the welfare department," Thomas said.

He explained that Roberts felt the study was needed because of the tremendous growth of the population of Florida and the expansion of the activities of the welfare department. The scope of public welfare encompasses many areas of our society and involves nearly all levels of government, Thomas said.

The resolution provides that the legislative council shall work with and have full cooperation of the state department of public welfare and all county welfare agencies.

"I think Mr. Roberts should be complimented for recognizing the need to improve the services of the department as well as its efficiency which result in greater service to the public," Thomas said.

State Balance Runs High Our Bud Says

Tallahassee—Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson, Jr., Comptroller of Florida, reported today that the state's general revenue fund balance for 1966 was $35,000,000—sufficiently large to permit a return of $15,000,000 to the Working Capital Fund.

As working capital, the money is invested to best possible advantage and begins to accrue interest. Scheduled six-months earnings for this year's $15,000,000 investment are set at $276,000, bringing the total working capital fund to $42 million.

Historically, the bulk of the surplus has been needed as an equalization transfer for the General Revenue Fund. Such a fund is necessary to help equalize revenue when it has traditionally tapered off in late summer and early fall—both low-revenue seasons.

"However, we were able to process all general revenue warrants this past year with an equalization transfer of only $15,000,000 whereas in the previous year it required $35,000,000," Dickinson announced.

The trend to a generally steady revenue and greater reserve for investment capital presumably reflects increased revenues and also the sale of motor vehicle tags on the 13-month basis. The March-to-May tag deadline this year may have helped particularly to level off receipts.

Early Bean Festival Picture Sparks An Idea

Recently the Pahokee Library Board received a letter from Ralph Johnson, attorney, who sent an old photograph from the records of the American Legion of an early Bean Festival, and he wondered if the Pahokee Public Library would agree to establish a collection of such to maintain in its records for historical purposes of the community.

After discussing this proposal the Board decided to establish a permanent memorabilia of Pahokee of historical facts from pioneer days to the present. If anyone has memos or pictures they care to give to this historical album please give them to the Librarian.

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

Primary Choir Year End Party Held Monday

Members of the Primary Choir of the Pahokee First Baptist Church, made up of children six, seven and eight years old, enjoyed an "end-of-the-year" party held in the City Park Monday afternoon in place of the regular practice period of the group.

The party, given by Mrs. Lee Carroll Parker, with the assistance of Mrs. Ray Singletary, was the last activity of the group until next fall, when the Primary Choir will be reorganized.

Wanda Lassiter, Becky Bush, Sylvia Yates and Tamya Martin were presented with promotion certificates, advancing them to membership in the Junior Choir. Also presented at the party were attendance certificates, based on points for being present at choir practice sessions and performances. Scott Parker receiving first place, Joe Ellen Barton, second, and Wanda Lassiter, third.

A watermelon cutting was the highlight during the serving of refreshments, which also included cold drinks, cookies and potato chips.

Fulton Asks New Ideas For Educational TV

All secondary school classroom teachers are to be asked to contribute curricula ideas for use in future I. T. V. programming, it is announced by County Superintendent Robert W. Fulton.

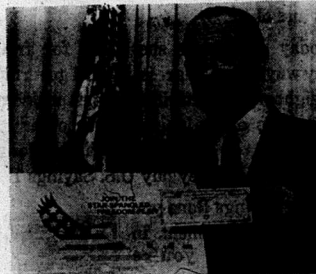

In a letter sent to all junior and senior high school principals, it is stated that county subject area coordinators will visit the schools for this purpose, and questionnaires are to be circulated. Coordinators in major subject areas including English, mathematics, foreign languages, industrial arts, music, etc. help in coordinating, developing curricula for the 93 elementary and secondary schools of the Palm Beach County school system, under both the Director of Elementary Schools Dr. Edna Parker, and Director of Secondary Schools Dr. D. L. Peterson.

Though the main I. T. V. Station, located at Boynton Beach, is expected to be on the air to serve many schools in the southern part of the county by next September, the new facility is not expected to go into operation for secondary schools until much later in the 1967-68 school year, it has been announced.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Bill Erickson is back at his home in Canal Point from Lakeland where he spent 16 days in the hospital undergoing tests and treatment. Mr. Erickson is somewhat improved after his stay there.

"Freedom must be at all times defended, because it is at all times besieged. Not all of us are called to fight on the battlefield. Many of us must, quietly and firmly, do what we can and all that we must, here at home. Buying Bonds, regularly, is as important to this nation in the long reach of history as almost anything we can do."

When you buy U.S. Savings Bonds regularly—through Payroll Savings where you work or Bond-a-Month where you bank—you are also entitled to purchase new Freedom Shares. Freedom Shares are short-term Savings Notes. They pay a higher return than Savings Bonds (4 1/4% when held to maturity in 4 1/2 years), may be bought one-for-one with Bonds in four denominations, and are redeemable after one year. You will find complete information where you work or bank. President Johnson displays the first Freedom Share.

Now— U. S. Savings Bonds Pay More Interest

4.15% when held to maturity

Higher interest on the Bonds you already own, too!

U.S. Savings Bonds are a better way to save than ever

Because now all Series E and Series H Bonds bought after December 1, 1965, will earn the new, higher interest rate of 4.15% when held to maturity. That's only 7 years for Series E—9 months quicker than before. All H Bond interest checks will be larger beginning in June 1966.

And your outstanding Bonds will earn more, too, from now on. So, you don't have to cash in your present Bonds to get the attractive new rate.

Ask about buying Bonds where you work or bank. For America's future. And yours.

"Today, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines."

"Today, above all, is a time for all Americans to reaffirm themselves to the spirit that animated the Minutemen of Concord—who serve as a symbol of the Savings Bond program. For today, as at the founding of our nation, it is freedom which is again at stake. Not all of us are called upon to fight in the jungles of Vietnam, but while our men are there, in the front lines of a distant land, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines. We must all do our share—in every way we can—to support our men in Vietnam. One sure way is open to all Americans through the Savings Bond program."
